LYME ART ASSOCIATION

At the beginning of the present century a group of artists became interested in painting the landscape of Old Lyme, and in 1901 the first exhibit was held in the public library. The Association was incorporated in 1912, and the present gallery, designed by Charles A. Platt, was built in 1920. The exhibitions have increased in interest and importance until now they have a recognized place in the art life of the country.

In order to carry on and broaden its influence, the Association is desirous of increasing its associate membership among lovers of the arts.
